Dear Parents of the Class of 2010:

Round Rock High School Project Graduation 2010 will be held on graduation night, Saturday, May 29, 2010. This post-graduation, chemical-free celebration is held in a safe environment for our graduating seniors and their guests. The alarming number of alcohol and drug-related deaths that have occurred nationwide following commencement ceremonies has made Project Graduation a vital tradition at RRHS.

This event is organized and funded by the non-profit 501(c) (3) corporation, Proud Dragon Parents, staffed entirely by volunteer, senior parents. We are expecting more than 500 students at the party. To make this night happen our budget is over $40,000. To raise that much money, we need your help!

There is no cost for the seniors to attend the party; however, school funds cannot be used. That's where Proud Dragon Parents come in. Together, we plan and raise the money for a night of food, refreshments, games, activities, music, entertainment, tournaments, prizes, and much more. Every dollar contributed toward Project Graduation is a tax-deductible donation to benefit our students.

Proud Dragon Parents can raise money by having many fundraisers throughout the year. That takes a lot of time and effort. We are asking parents to strongly consider contributing $50 in honor of their student to eliminate the need for so many fundraising activities.

We realize not everyone is able to commit to a $50 donation. If that is your case, please consider contributing whatever amount you are comfortable donating. Every dollar helps! On the other hand, if you are in a position to contribute more, your extra donation would be greatly appreciated. (For payment options, see www.ProudDragonParents.org). No student will be turned away from attending the party for lack of a donation. The number of students attending Project Graduation has increased every year, and most students choose to attend. We plan on making it a celebration they won't want to miss!

In addition to monetary donations, we ask you to volunteer your time and talents. Regularly check www.ProudDragonParents.org for information. We have a job for everyone! Please see the back of this letter for volunteer opportunities.

Also, we are in need of corporate donations. Now is the time to contact your employer and any businesses or professionals you think would like to make a tax-deductible contribution. The donations committee can contact them on your behalf if you prefer. If you own or run a business, please consider making a tax-deductible corporate donation of cash or items that could be used as prizes for our students. Contact Gabriela Klein at pdonations@rrhspg.org for details.

Let's make this the best Project Graduation ever! Won't you please help?

Thank You,

Gabriela Klein, Parent Donation Chair
